

The Treasure Valley NAACP presents the 3rd Annual Scholarship Program in Celebration of the Brown v. Board 52nd Anniversary

The Treasure Valley NAACP is proud to host our Third Annual Scholarship Program in celebration of the 52nd Anniversary of Brown v. Board. It is a time to recognize, praise and award our local high school seniors and college students with scholarships to assist in furthering their education. Please join us in this year's celebration of academic excellence and in the sounds of music.

We are honored to bring you the acclaimed Wilberforce University Choir, from the nation's oldest Historically Black College. This award-winning choir can trace its roots all the way back to 1878 and the choir has performed across the United States and abroad, including a special invitation from the American Ambassador and the U.S. Embassy, to perform in Cairo, Egypt.

The choir's repertoire includes a wide variety of music encompassing all periods and styles from the great Classics of the masters to Spirituals and Black Gospel Music. The choir performs annually at the five Conferences of the Third Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.
